

Falconi's Acura of Las Vegas

To Whom It May Concern:

Mr. Falconi and my family have built many ground-up dealerships over the past thirty years. Robert Reyes was the builder of our new Acura project here in Las Vegas. This was the best experience we have ever had! Robert is the sole reason the dealership was completed on time. His communication with us was beyond our expectations.

If you are deciding to construct a new building or renovate your existing facility, consider using Robert Reyes. You will not be disappointed. Please call me personally and I will be happy to show you our dealership facility and the excellent workmanship provided by his management.

Yours truly,

Gary M. Logan
